We present some early results from our recent study into Korean private equity, and in particular the mid-cap SME sector. The Korean economy needs to find a new path to growth, and SMEs must play a major role.

At AVCJ Korea 2016 (<http://www.avcjkorea.com/static/programme>) we presented some early results from our recent study into Korean private equity, and in particular the mid-cap SME sector. The Korean economy needs to find a new path to growth, and SMEs must play a major role. See some of our findings in our event presentation.
