

Interview: Entrepreneurship, government policy and the role of large corporations in Korea and Finland

Reddal Insights — 19 October 2016

Per Stenius

Per Stenius was interviewed this week by Korean SBS media channel for a program on entrepreneurship, government policy and the role of large corporations in Korea and Finland alongside other experts and organizations.

Per Stenius was interviewed this week by Korean SBS media channel for a program on entrepreneurship, government policy and the role of large corporations in Korea and Finland. The program is available on the web after it has been aired on national TV, SBS ch 6, Sunday 13.11.2016 19:30. The producers interviewed multiple experts and organizations, including from Finland the former Prime Minister and EVP of Nokia, Mr. Esko Aho, Startup Sauna, Aalto design factory, and others.

Please see the SBS website for episodes of this program (in Korean):

http://program.sbs.co.kr/builder/programReplayVideo.do?pgm_id=22000003708&pgm_build_id=4401&pgm_mnu_id=15703